Just a quick note to confirm your presence at the round-table discussion on employment opportunities in Intelligence. As I mentioned on the phone, the session will be on Tuesday, November 2nd from 5:30-6:30 in the Elephant Room on the first floor.

I have invited three others in Intelligence to attend. As in the past, I will ask you each to speak for about 5 minutes, specifically addressing three fundamental questions that are on the minds of all job seekers: (a) How did you go about finding your job? (b) What is the substantive nature of your work on a day to day basis? (c) And, what are the pros and cons of working in Intelligence? The last half of the session will be devoted to responding informally to the myriad of questions that will inevitably result from your presentation.

Our student coordinator, Steve Dimoff would like to meet you a few minutes before the session in the first floor waiting area.

We look forward to seeing you on the 2nd.

Sincerely,

George L. Crowell
Assistant Dean

STATINTL

STATINTL I request approval for [REDACTED] (OER), [REDACTED] (OER), [REDACTED] (OPR), and myself to attend a discussion about employment as an analyst in the Agency to take place on 2 November at SAIS.

2. Because we are all graduates of the school,
Mr. George Crowell, the Associate Dean, has asked us to meet with SAIS students who will be entering the job market. The discussion is part of a series conducted by the placement staff in the fall of each year to put students in their final year in contact with representatives of international business, the foreign service, the civil service, etc. The focus is on the day-to-day substance of the job, and the pros and cons potential job applicants should consider. Last year Messrs. [REDACTED] and myself represented the Agency.

3. It is understood that we will not discuss classified information nor will we touch on any aspect of US policy. We will be identified as employees of CIA.
